HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Seattle
- ▶ San Juan Islands
- ▶ Friday Harbor
- ▶ Victoria
- ▶ Port Angeles
- ▶ Olympic National Park
- ▶ Hoh Rain Forest
- ▶ Hurricane Ridge

This trip begins in Seattle, the “Emerald City.” Visit historic Pioneer Square and the lively Pike Place Market. Then relax aboard the Viking Star as you cruise through the scenic San Juan Islands of Washington state. Pass the famous Roche Harbor on your way to witness Orca whales in their natural habitat.

Arrive in Victoria, home to some of Canada’s most exhilarating scenery. Explore Butchart Gardens, hailed by National Geographic as one of the “top ten magnificent gardens” in the world. Later, board the MV Coho ferry for a 90-minute ride to Port Angeles, Washington. Perched on the shoreline in the shadows of the magnificent Mount Baker and Olympic National Park, the views will take your breath away. Explore Olympic National Park and the Hoh Rain Forest, one of the few and most remarkable temperate rainforests in the United States.

Space is filling up quickly! Hurry and get your deposit in now if you're interested.

- ▶ The Dobson Museum
- ▶ Route 66 Vintage Iron Motorcycle Museum
- ▶ Mickey Mantle's Boyhood home in Commerce, OK
- ▶ Tour of the historic Coleman Theatre
- ▶ Dinner in the Coleman Ballroom
- ▶ Movie in the Coleman Theatre: Angel and the Badman, directed by and starring John Wayne

Join us for a delightful one-day trip to historic Miami, Oklahoma, a must-see stop on Route 66.

We'll visit the Dobson Museum, a fascinating collection of artifacts highlighting the history of Ottawa County life, mining, military, Native American culture, famous residents, and industry.

After touring the Route 66 Vintage Iron Motorcycle Museum, which is home to the Evel Knievel collection and features more than 25 vintage motorcycles, we'll jaunt a few miles to Commerce, OK and visit Micky Mantle's boyhood home.

The highlight of this trip will undoubtedly be the beautiful Coleman Theatre, a premier Vaudeville Movie Palace built in 1929. The exterior architecture is Spanish Mission Revival with terra cotta gargoyles, and other hand-carved figures adorn the building's facade. The interior features gold leaf trim, silk damask panels and carved mahogany staircases. We'll begin with a tour, and then enjoy a delicious dinner at the theatre, after which we'll watch Angel and the Badman, which stars John Wayne and was the first movie he directed.

The highlight of this trip will undoubtedly be Machu Picchu, which remained undiscovered by the Spanish Conquistadors and unknown to the outside world until 1911.

Today, travelers come from around the globe to experience the most spectacular sight on the South American continent. Built at the height of the Inca Empire, this classic archeological treasure continues to intrigue researchers. We'll venture through the mountains and semi-tropical jungle during a spectacular train ride, stay overnight at a luxury hotel at the base of Machu Picchu, and spend two days exploring this ultimate bucket-list treasure.

MAUSOLEUM STORIES

Saturday, October 24, 7:00 p.m

Join Club:go for a look back in Bartlesville time and history!

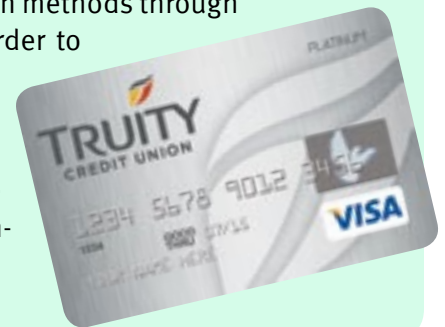

RSVP

Tallgrass Theater in alliance with White Rose Cemetery is presenting Mausoleum Stories written and directed by Marilyn Johnson. The dramatized program features the lives of some of the residents of White Rose Cemetery and is held in the Mausoleum atrium. The "Honored Guests" this year will be W.W. Keeler, Jane Phillips, James Teel, Vivian Foster, and Henry Wells. The characters are portrayed by local citizens of Bartlesville and thespians of Theater Bartlesville. The largely unknown Mausoleum, located in White Rose Cemetery, is a beautiful building of marble and stained glass windows and brass. Built in the 1920s, it is one of Bartlesville's hidden treasures and the resting place of many of the city's founding fathers.

$10 per person due at time of sign-up. RSVP by Oct. 20, 2015. Held at the White Rose Cemetery, 804 W 11th St. (11th & Virginia), Bartlesville.
